

From: sh
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/8/01 12:46am
Subject: I have been in the software programming business for many years and I can say that you people are ha

I have been in the software programming business for many years and I can say that you people are harming and slowing down technology and ideas. Ask any of those lawyers what a "cut-down" version of microsoft windows will do for them and ask them why and they will all stutter probably. You people are a joke on this issue. Focus on finding thieves and people that kill another, instead of operating systems the government and lawyers know nothing about.